THREE CENTS

Winship-Howard California Wedding

Miss Betsy Ann Howard, daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Preston Howard of Tucson, Ariz., became the bride of Sumner Robertson Winship, formerly on the staff of the American Youth Hostels, and resident of Northfield, Friday afternoon, December 22, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Egerton D. Lakin, in Palo Alto, Cal. The marriage was performed by Rev. R. Marvin Stuart, minister of the First Methodist Church of that town.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Egerton D. Lakin, and wore a gown of white satin with fingertip marquisette veil, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and orange blossoms. Mrs. Kai Suhr, a cousin of the bride, the only bridal attendant, wore a white jersey gown, and carried autumn flowers. The best man was Lieut. (jg) Robert M. Seibert of Philadelphia, attached to the Flag Pacific Amphibious Training Command.

The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Harold S. Winship of Hanson, Mass., where Rev. Mr. Winship is pastor of the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. Howard accompanied her daughter to Palo Alto for the ceremony together with the bride's sister-in-law, wife of Capt. John B. Howard of the Air Transport Command.

Mrs. Winship attended Rice Institute in Houston, Tex., and the University of Arizona in Tucson. She was a member of the staff of Radio Station KVOA, Tucson. Mr. Winship attended Bulkeley High School, Hartford, Conn., Temple University, Philadelphia, and the University of Arizona. He is with the passenger traffic department of the Southern Pacific Company, at Oakland, Cal., where the couple will make their home.

Serves Army as Nurse

A Worcester newspaper recently carried a feature story quoting at length from the diary of Lieut. Dorothy E. Williams, Northfield class of 1931, now of the Army Nurse Corps, who is situated in New Zealand. She is the sister-in-law of Capt. Lester P. White of the Army Chaplain Corps, formerly chaplain of Mount Hermon School. Lieut. Williams' diary described a 10-day motor tour she made through the New Zealand back country accompanied by a native nurse. The country's distinctive flora and fauna and the Maori aborigines which were of special interest to the Yankee nurse are described graphically and with a fine sense of humor. She has been overseas since 1942.

Awarded Purple Heart

T/4 Leon Bistrek of the 104th Infantry, 26th Division, who was wounded in action in France, has been awarded the Purple Heart which has been received by his mother, Mrs. Josephine Bistrek of Northfield. Sergt. Bistrek has also received the Combat Badge for carrying out wounded comrades under fire. He was inducted into the Army March 19, 1941.

Local Boy Assigned To Artillery Service

The many friends of Pvt. Norman E. Way were pleased to receive greetings from him during the holiday season. He had been in training camps in North Carolina and Alabama and was in Northfield for a furlough about two months ago. Now it is learned that he has been attached to a battery company of artillery in the Army and has received his assignment.

It is presumed that he has gone overseas with his unit for his address is now only furnished through the Postmaster in New York.

PVT. NORMAN E. WAY

Pvt. Way came to Northfield and was associated with his father in the conduct of an antique business at the Sunset Inn until his draft into the service. He was an accomplished musician and sang several times to audiences here.

Valley Symphony Will Play Sunday

The Pioneer Valley Symphony will open its sixth season on Sunday, January 7, in the Greenfield High School auditorium with Miss Adele Addison, negro soprano, as guest artist. Harold A. Leslie will conduct the program.

The symphony will play the "Oxford Symphony" by Haydn, Handel's "O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me," Mozart's "Alleluia," Charpentier's "Depuis le Jour," Brahms' Hungarian dances 5 and 6, Tchaikovsky's "Andante Cantabile," and Strauss's "Emperor Waltz."

The second concert in the series of three will be given Sunday afternoon, March 4, when George Zozofski, concert violinist of the Boston Symphony will be guest artist. The date of the third concert will be announced later. A large attendance of music lovers from Northfield is expected.

Mrs. Merrill T. Moore of Maple Street announces a great grandson, born to Lieut. and Mrs. Henry Shepard at Chapman Memorial Hospital at St. Stephens, N. B., on Friday, December 8. Lieut. Shepard is stationed in England with the Air Corps. Mrs. Moore is with her daughter in White Plains for the winter.

"Vacation" Dwellings New England Survey

The New England Council has just published a survey of the "vacation" dwellings in New England, meaning homes that are used only during the summer or vacation period by non-residents. The map accompanying the survey shows the proportions by states with percentages. In the United States as a whole the percent is 1.3 while for New England it is over 5 per cent.

Maine and New Hampshire contain the most of the summer homes although our state of Massachusetts makes a good showing in the Cape Cod area. The area in which Northfield is located is classified with from 2 to 5 per cent. Our local assessors would probably state that we have close to 5 per cent of summer homes. The survey is definite proof that to New England the summer business is an asset and not a liability and applies with equal force to the individual community. Northfield has no large industrial enterprises and aside from its agricultural and dairy interests, the summer vacationist is its big proposition. It should be encouraged and developed more fully in the future.

O'Keefe - Severance

Miss Sybil Severance, daughter of M. and Mrs. Irwin Severance of Birnam Road, and Donald O'Keefe, USN, son of Mrs. Jennie O'Keefe of Crockett, Cal., were married Saturday evening, December 23, at the home of Rev. Ellis Jones who used the double ring service.

Miss Shirley Severance, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Richard Barrows, SM 3-c, USN, was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Hillside cottage.

The bride is a graduate of the Northfield School for Girls and the Deaconess Hospital Training School for Nurses in Boston. After a brief wedding trip, the bride returned to her position at the Boston Lying-in Hospital and the bridegroom the naval receiving station in Brooklyn, where he is stationed.

Baskets of Sunshine Bring Christmas Cheer

The cheer brought at the Christmas time to the many homes here and individuals by the Salvation Army brings the satisfaction to those responsible, that loves labour is never lost. To the sick and the afflicted, to those who mourn, the "baskets of sunshine," as well as the flowers proved indeed a benediction in the observance of the Saviour's birth. Throughout the land, as well as in Northfield these compassionate acts were administered through the local committees.

Mrs. Jaycee: "Goodness, George, this isn't our baby. It's the wrong carriage."

Mr. Jaycee: "Shut up, this one has rubber tires."

The Ice Carnival Was Huge Success

The Ice Carnival of 1944, Saturday, December 30, will be accredited as the most successful ever held here. The weather was cold but perfect conditions prevailed and the ice was smooth, hard and fast. The public was informed of the event by bulletin, mailing and a large number responded as participants in the sport or as visitors to witness the various numbers of the program. The street was lined with automobiles on both sides. There was general skating, special skating events, races and fancy and daring exhibitions by professional troupe from elsewhere. Gene Cullum was director of events which were announced through a loudspeaker. There was much transcribed music which enlivened the program. Mr. Spencer, Mr. Kirk and Mr. Johnson of the rink committee deserve much appreciation for making the carnival a success. It is planned to make it an annual affair. A large number of those attending the carnival were many of the older folks of the community.

Hostel Annual Reunion

The annual Northfield reunion of members of the American Youth Hostel was held here at the national headquarters from Wednesday, December 27 to and including January 1. A goodly number attended the gathering and shared in the social program, which included dancing, movies and music. There were events in many sports, skiing, sleighing, skating and hiking. Of course, many personal experiences in hosteling were related which abounded in interest and linked all together in a common purpose. Considerably over a hundred hostellers shared in the reunion, who were welcomed by the officials and staff of the Hostel organization.

She came to Northfield when a child with her parents, who located on Burt Hill on the Winchester Road and occupied the same home during her lifetime when her parents died. After the death of her mother she and her brother "Willie" remained there and after his passing she sold the property and came here. The property is now owned by Robert Milkey of Washington as a summer home.

Both Celestia and Willie were well known to all in the northern part of the town especially to summer residents and were characters of the "old school." Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at Kidders funeral parlors.

Beautiful in its festive decorations was the appearance of the Northfield Hotel during the holiday season and its setting amid the white snows especially on the moonlit nights offered a most inviting attendance. The hotel was crowded to capacity and the guests and friends enjoyed the special dinners on the holidays. Sports were the order of the day and beside the pleasure of skiing, there was some sleighing and the ice rink was used by throngs. Indoors there was the evening concert and social hour and on Saturday evening a most enjoyable dance. The decorated Christmas trees at the lobby entrance and the colored lights at the windows reflected in the snows gave the Northfield a most alluring appearance never to be forgotten.
